

There are no translations available.

Segovia for children

Inside this space you will find the information about all the activities specifically designed by the EMT for families with small children: dynamic guided visits, games, useful information, pictures, drawing contests, etc.

Coming soon...

This microsite will have available the information in your own language. We apologize for the inconvenience.

If you wish to consult the information available in Spanish click here.