

The Acueduct of Segovia

The Great Roman Aqueduct of Segovia is the most important, loved and broadly known monument by both the segovians and the visitors.

In this microsite the visitor may find wider and more detailed information on the monument, as well as the activities, events and the latest news. You may also find information on the guided visits designed to enjoy and learn about our Aqueduct.

Coming soon...

This microsite will have available the information in your own language. We apologize for the inconvenience.

If you wish to consult the information available in Spanish click here.